U.E.L. Assoc. of Canada,
Adolphustown, Ontario.

Dear Sirs,

I am attempting to find information re branches on both sides of mine, and my husband's, families.

His family are Bowerman, and we have written to West Falmouth, Mass. for information re the Saconnesset Homestead. We also understand an original Bowerman House in Prince Edward County has been turned into a museum.

If you have any information on this we should be delighted. My husband's grandfather died just last week. He was Wm. Andrew, son of Richard, son of Israel, son of Ichabod. ^{omitted} Ichabod was married secondly to Jane Richmond in 1757. ^{son of} Ichabod was born to Thos. Bowerman III in the Bay Colony in 1721, if our records are straight.

Also, I am interested in ascertaining whether you have any records of Fisks who came from Massachusetts, also. My grandfather was Burrell Fisk, and great grandfather, Julius, I believe.
They moved into The Orono, Fenelon Falls area.
Perhaps you could tell me where to find such information if not thro' your branch.

Replied 11 Mar/69

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) Katherine E. Morrison.

Annablers

~~Bowermans~~ arrived on "Anne", Master William Pierce

Sixty passengers, arrived June 10 1623
Anthony Annable, of All Saints, Cambridge, & wife Jane Monford and 2 children

On arrival they were taken care of in the Common House & in tents.

3rd child born in 1625, Hannah lived in Plymouth Colony until 1633. when they moved north to Scituate where Anthony ran a mill. Their lot was on the north side of ~~the~~ Meeting House Road & west of Kent Street Annablers moved to Barnstable with the Rev. John Hathorn's church members

Thomas Bowerman arrived at Plymouth from London between 1623 & 1633. He died at Falmouth, Mass., between 9 May & 4th June 1663

may have come on Abigail in 1628

Is recorded "as repairing the fort at Plymouth in 1633."

In the annals of Sandwich Freeman says "a grant having been made April 5, 1637 to Mr Edmund & nine associates . . . within or soon after came a large number of persons chiefly from Lynn, Dorchester & Plymouth viz. — 6th on the list Thos. Bowerman
He remained in Sandwich several years, had grant of lands in 1641, but in 1643 was following the occupation of carpenter in Yarmouth (4 miles from Barnstable). In 1645 Thos Bowerman is 11th on list of 68 persons in the Township of Sandwich who were liable to bear arms (ages between 16 & 60)

On March 1st 1644 (or 10th 1644 new style) Thos Bowerman married Hannah Annable, dau. of Anthony & Jane Monford.

The Bowerman farm joined the Annable farm in part It was on the south side of a cove or meadow at the head of Bridge Creek & about one half mile east of the present West Barnstable. It is thus described in the town records: "(1) 25 acres of Upland, be it more or less, touching southerly on ye marsh; easterly on a brook, westerly

- upon a brook; and so running 80 rods southerly into the woods.
- (2) 16 acres of marsh, more or less, bounded westerly partly by John Jenkins's & partly by a ditch cast up between Abraham Blush and him; northerly, partly by the highway & partly by Gdm. Blush; Easterly, partly by the great swamp & partly by Gdm. Blush's — his meadow.
- (3) 5 acres upland, more or less, lying northerly upon the marsh; southerly upon a footpath; Easterly upon a flashy swamp; westerly upon his own land.

The above described land and meadow with his dwelling house thereon, he sold, 28th October, 1662, to Robert Parker for £ 78."

Thos Boardman recorded as a surveyor of highways in 1648, & 4, and juror in 1650

Hager

Robt. Hager was one of 22 men who subscribed £ 20 each on Jan 26 1654 for building a mill. It was completed May 18 1655. About the same time he subscribed 5 shillings for a new meeting house (Quaker!)

Quakers came in 1656. Hager apparently became one & was one of 19 who were fined a total of £ 660-7-6. His share was £ 44-0-0

The main causes of antipathy towards Quakers was their refusal to take oaths, perform military service & pay rates however holding meetings or harboring Quakers was also punished.

Quakers blamed for various calamities

Thos Boardman does not appear as associated with the Quakers. He was chosen by Yarmouth as one of 4 to settle differences between an Indian & the town of Yarmouth. This was settled & signed May 14 1658

Thos was still closely associated with Yarmouth, although he held his land, and apparent home, at Barnstable until 1662

Anthony Annable & 6 others allowed to purchase lds at Seconset, (Falmouth) ^{Mar 5 (1659)} as were Thos Boardman & 5 others of Plymouth. in June 4 1661. These moves due to refusal of right of religious liberty.

Thos Annable & Boardman were originators of Town of Falmouth which was incorporated in 1680. Boardman sold his land at Barnstable in 1663 & probably moved directly into his new house overlooking Buzzards Bay in West Falmouth. He was a carpenter & this house, with additions, still stands today as the oldest house in West Falmouth & one of the famous "Old Houses of America." Present occupant is Mrs. Virtue Boweman Gifford, Box 404, R. F. D. Falmouth, Mass., a direct descendant of the builder.

all lots at Falmouth of 8 acres, each sitting on the bay & running to the hill, with each person having a 4 acre lot sitting on the pond

On June 3, 1662 Governor Prence granted 4 acres of land in Namassakett to all first born children in America. Anthony Annable's daughter Hannah Burman was one. Namassakett was an old Algonkian Indian town 14 miles west of "Plymouth Plantation."

Robert Harper was publicly whipped (1663) by order of the court "for disturbing public worship at Sandwich & Barnstable."

Anthony Annable died in 1674, apparently at Falmouth, but he is reported to have been buried in the Lathrop Cemetery at Barnstable.

Thos Boweman d. betw May 9 & June 4 1663, of unknown age, at his home in west Falmouth. He was a freeman, a trusted member of the community, a fine carpenter, a dissenter & evidently a sympathizer with the Quakers. The family home went to his eldest son, Thomas II.

Thos II was Town Clerk for Barnstable Co. & a land surveyor
 He married Apr 9 1678 Mary Harper, dau of Robert Harper & his first wife Deborah Perry whom he mar. at Barnstable May 9, 1654.
 This (Thos II) was likely a Quaker manager for "Thos Bummer was fined £ 10.0.0 for marrying himself."

Freeman says of Robt Harper. "In 1689 Mr. Robert Harper was an inhabitant of Falmouth. He had been a very prominent man in all the Quaker troubles and himself 'a great sufferer' - - - His fines in the aggregate £ 44, he was sentenced to 15 stripes in Boston in 1659.
 By marriage with Deborah Perry, May 9, 1654, and 2nd with Prudence Buller June 22nd, 1666, he had a large family.
 "About 1685 Robert Harper is found to be recognized Quaker.
 The meeting was probably at West Falmouth

In 1688 (Falmouth) lands were laid out to Thos. Bowerman.
 on 22 April 1690, "Thomas Bowerman bought of Jonathan Hatch Sr. & Robert Harper, agents of the inhabitants of Suck-

In 1690 it was ordered that all the undivided lands within Suckanerset be laid out in lots and allotments. John Jenkins was appointed agent to obtain suitable persons to lay out the Rand lands and employed William Wyall and Thos. Bowerman
 By March 1691 its duty was ably performed and the bounds accurately described.

In 1700 March 19, the proprietors "Ordered that all records of lands be transcribed from the town book and recorded in a new one; and that Moses Hatch and Thos. Bowerman perform this duty and be paid for their services."

In 1702, the town meeting chose Mr. Thomas Bowerman, and Mr Joseph Parker to settle with Mr Shiversick, the town minister and teacher who had been dismissed Dec 21 previous."

In 1704 he was employed, with Wm Sifford, as purchaser's agents in "the last addition of lands called the new purchase on the borders of Sandwich

In 1712 June 12, "at a proprietors of the old & new purchases, Thos

5-

Bowman & Philip Dexter were appointed to lay out said lands in lots - regard to be had to accommodating each lot with water and convenient ways" "These lots were laid out Apr 10 1713

Ichabod Bowman

Born in Falmouth, Bay State, in 1721

Died Oswego, in Bateman's precinct (in this Beckmans) Dutchess Co. N.Y. between the signing of his will on "fourth day of the second month" 1790 and the probate of the Will March 1, 1790

Presumably brought up by his stepmother from babyhood, along with her own eight children, Ichabod migrated, about the time of his marriage to Lydia Mott in 1744, to Beckman Patent and joined a colony of Quakers centered at Quaker Hill on "the Oblong," Dutchess County, N.Y. "The Oblong" was a two mile strip of land adjoining the Connecticut border, ceded by Connecticut in 1731 when the Colonial boundaries were established. He apparently took up land and perhaps a mill site at Oswego near Moore's Mills and attended the new Nine Partners log meeting house ~~five~~ five miles to the north east.

Friends moved north and established Oblong Meeting as part of Purchase Quarterly Meeting in Quaker Hill Village, Pawling, N.Y. A meeting for worship under Purchase Meeting was set up on Maple Avenue, near Millbrook, N.Y., in 1742, and a log meeting house was built. This was known as Nine Partners Meeting* and was recognized as a Preparative Meeting in 1744. "In 1769, Purchase Quarterly Meeting set apart this meeting from Oblong Meeting and granted to both a Monthly Meeting status."

*The Great Nine Partners patent, granted in 1697, included the present townships of America, Washington, Pleasant Valley, the south portions of Northeast Stamford, Clinton and parts of Hyde Park south of Elbow Creek. ~~These~~ Dutchess County was divided into wards in 1717; into precincts in 1737; and into townships in 1788.

"The original log (Nine Partners) Meeting house was destroyed by fire" and the present "brick Meeting House was erected in 1780." #5

With galleries encircling both men's and women's rooms, the seating capacity is about 450. The property is now owned by the Nine Partners Cemetery Association but appointed meetings are still held in the Meeting House.

Among other meeting houses built, was Oswego on Oswego Road, one mile from Moore's Mills. "Friends were already pioneering to Beekman Patent before 1750, when they began to hold meetings under the oversight of Oblong Meeting, then a part of Purchase Quarterly Meeting."

In 1751 two acres were purchased and a log Meeting House was erected. By 1756 . . . Preparative Meeting status was granted by Oblong Meeting. Growth in numbers necessitated a larger Meeting House built in 1760, and continuing in use today, located across the road and north of the log Meeting site."

Ichabod Bowerman is associated with Oswego in all known references after his marriage in 1744 and it may be assumed that he settled near there at or before that time. He would then attend Nine Partners log meeting house, about five miles north and east of Oswego, until 1751 when the Oswego meeting house was erected. In any case the present Oswego Meeting house was centre of worship for the Bowerman family from the time of its erection in 1760 on.

The births of all of Ichabod's children are recorded in the minutes of Oblong Meeting.

In 1744 Ichabod Bowerman married Lydia Mott who bore him the following children:

- | | | | | |
|--------------|------|-------------|------|------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Timothy | born | 2nd mo. 2nd | 1745 | settled in Cayman's Patent -

| 5. David | " | 3rd " 11th | 1755 | |
| 6. Sarah | " | 2nd " 2nd | 1757 | remained in NY |

as the calendar was changed in 1752, the above dates would appear as follows in the New Style with the names of its months

Replacing the numbers

1. Timothy b. Apr. 13 1745
- 2 Elizabeth b. Apr 11 1748
- 3 Jane b Apr 5 1750
- *4 Hannah b. Oct 18 1752
- *5 David b March 11 1755
- *6 Sarah b Feb 2 1757

* The last three dates would remain unchanged assuming that Oblong Meeting followed the instructions from London yearly Meeting and changed to the new style in September 1752

Until 1752, England and her colonies used the Julian Calendar by which the year began on March 25th. On the second of September, 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted by which September 3 was reckoned September 14, and the year 1753 was started on January 1st.

of Lydia Mott's children, Timothy moved his family to "Cayman's (Cayman's?) Patent" 11 miles south of Albany on the Hudson River. All others, except Sarah, moved to Canada after the Revolution

Lydia Mott died on the 11th of 2nd month, 1759 and on the 15th of 11th month 1754. "Ichabod Bowerman" married Jane Richmond, his former housekeeper, "out of meeting," as recorded on page 3 of Quaker Births and Deaths - Oblong Monthly Meeting Dutchess County, compiled by Mrs. Josephine C. Frost. * Being married "out of meeting" signifies that Jane Richmond was not a Quaker, as only Quakers could be married "in meeting." Jane was the daughter of Cyrus Richmond of Rhode Island and his second wife Phoebe Mott, who were married before John Hoxie, Justice of the Peace, March 27th, 1734. As the Richmond family belonged to the Church of England, this marriage may signify that Phoebe Mott was not a member of the Anglican Church.

* Ethel Bowerman Cronk says the marriage of Ichabod Bowerman and Jane Richmond was recorded by Stonington (Conn.) Monthly Meeting, but the minutes were destroyed by fire.

Ichabod & Jane Bowermans children were (as taken from transcript of the minutes of the Monthly Meeting on the Oblong, in the Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N.Y., in the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.)

Oswego, the N.Y. home of the Ichabod Bowerman family, is near the present Moore's Hill, eight miles east of Poughkeepsie, the port on the Hudson River.

Moore's mill is located on a north-south ridge about 460 feet above tide water and drained on the west by Sprout Creek.

By 1775 the American Revolution produced new problems. The Quaker Bowermans and the Anglican Richmonds were loyal British subjects as were most of the Dutch of the Hudson valley. As the war dragged on, the revolutionary soldiers became bolder & tradition says that Thomas IV was nearly killed by them. As his mother was not a Quaker when he was born, he was not a birthright member, but he attended meetings and was strongly attached to his father's faith, which his mother also joined.

Finally, Thomas joined the British forces, probably when about 19 or about the time of the last active fighting in Saratoga. At the close of the war in 1783, Thos. Bowerman (17), now 22 years of age, was a private in the King's Royal Regiment of New York. As a soldier he could not go home, but now with other United Empire Loyalists he was offered free land and assistance, his land being on the north shore of East Lake. This was confirmed by Capt. Henry Young who, on February 20th, 1784, reported to Major Vauclain that he had allotted land on the north shore of East Lake to Private Thomas Bowerman.

The sacrifices of Thomas Bowerman, U. E. L., were not in vain. Many Quaker families followed him to Canada, including his mother and 14 of his father's eighteen children, there they helped build a strong Quaker community.

Thos Bowerman's story is briefly told by his eldest son, Vincent:

"During the Revolution he remained attached to the King's party and as soon as peace was proclaimed he came to Canada in the year 1783 or '84 and married Sarah Vincent and settled on the North Shore of the little lake (East Lake Lot 3) but he soon left it and moved over to the West Lake shore (South Side Lot 5) and there I was born on 21st of 5th mo. 1791. My mother died when I was a day or two old. I was placed under the care of Daniel and Elizabeth Peltet where I remained until I was two years old, at which time my father went to Dutchess County, and returned with his second wife, Reuben, a daughter of Josiah & Mehitabel Bull (married 4th month 4th 1793). ~~There~~ he moved over on the north shore of (West) lake and took me with him and settled on lot 101 first concession military list containing about 250 acres of entire wild land bought of Major Henry Young for about $100.00

Marriages in Mass. Book II - Rochester:

Jane Clifton born Feb. 15, 1697.

married Oct. 11, 1721 - Thomas Bowerman married by Malatiah Bourne, Falmouth, V.R.

Jane Clifton was daughter of Savory Clifton and Dorothy Burgers.

Dorothy Burgers had a brother, Ichabod, born 1684.

Jane Clifton who married Thomas Bowerman, probably named her son Ichabod after her uncle Ichabod.

I do not accept the name of Jane Harby as a first wife of Thomas Bowerman, for the reason of diligent research - no documentary evidences can be found of it. Also the name does not appear in any of the early the name of Harby.

Query B-8804 (4) BOMPASSE-ANNABLE

A family record states Edward Bompasse, from Leyden to Plymouth Mass., 1621, "mar. Hannah (perhaps Annable)." In 1622 Hannah Annable
b. abt 1622, had come to Plymouth with her parents, Anthony and Jane, but, according to "Saints and Strangers" she mar 1645 Thomas Freeman. Is positive identification of Edward Bompasse's wife been made?

Reply B-8804 Apr 28, 1956 BOMPASSE-ANNABLE.

The author of "Saints and Strangers" is in error concerning Hannah Annable and her marriage. She mar. Mar. 10, 1645 (Mayflower Desc. Mag.
vol. III 51-52) Thomas Bowerman. Annable-Bowerman desc. of Falmouth consider Swift's Gen. Notes of Barnstable Families authentic. Swift says, "My record differs from Mr. Dean's History of Beitvale and Mr. Savages (Dict of N.E. vol 1). Anthony Annable came on "Anne" 1623 bringing wife Jane and dau. Sarah. On list of first born in Plymouth Colony is Hannah, dau. of Anthony Annable. A grant of land was made to her in virtue of her right as son of the first born in colony. No stronger evidence can be adduced.

THE BOWERMAN FAMILY.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte.

It is learned from Tremon's History of Cape Cod that one, Thomas Bowerman, was in Plymouth and Bedford, Mass., in 1632 and 1634 respectively. He married Hannah, daughter of Anthony Able in 1644 and had issue:

Thomas
Samuel
Desire
Mary Mahetabel
Tristram

Thomas Bowerman, the second of these children, married Mary Harper in ^{19 Apr.} 1676 and had issue:

Samuel
Thomas
Stephen
Benjamin
Hannah
Maite

Thomas, son of Thomas, married, and his children were: was she Jane Harby? or Jane Clifton.

Ichabod
Judah of West & Almouth, Mass. marr. 1758 Mary Dillingham
Davis
Silas
Joseph
Sarah
Eliza

Deborah

Ichabod Bowerman, the eldest of this family, was born in the Bay Colony in 1721. He married first Lydia Mott about 1742, by whom he had issue: she d. 11th 2d mo 1759

Timothy b. 2d of 2d month 1745
Elizabeth b. 31st of 1st month 1748
David b. 11th of 3rd month 1755
Jane b. 25th of 1st month 1750
Mary b. 18th of 10th month 1752
Sarah, b. 9th of 2nd month 1757?

His second wife was Jane Richmond, whom he married in 1757. She was the daughter of Cris Richmond and granddaughter of Sylvester Richmond, who became a Quaker in England at the time of George Fox, and was sent to America, where a large tract of land was purchased for him in what is now Rhode Island by his brother Edward Richmond, then Bishop of London. In this connection it may be mentioned that Mrs. Bowerman, in 1797, was buried from the home of her son-in-law, Cornelius Blount, and from that time henceforth, until a meeting house was built, Quaker meetings were held at this house, the first to be held in Prince Edward County. Ichabod Bowerman, by his second marriage, had a large family, and soon after his death (which occurred in Dutchess County in 1791), many of his children, including Lydia, who married Cornelius Blount, emigrated to Prince Edward County, and settled on either side of the present site of Bloomfield, locating themselves along what is now called the main road, for a distance of five miles.

BOARDMAN.

The family of BOARDMAN takes its origin in England from WILLIAM, surnamed "Le Bois de Main" or "of the wooden hand," a Norman follower of William the Conqueror. This WILLIAM had a grant of two knight's fees of land in the Co. of Suffolk, as is mentioned in the Domesday Book. From this family descended Sir Andrew Boardman, the favourite of King Henry VIII who gave him in marriage the hand of his ward, Lady Katherine Howard, daughter of the Earl of Berkshire and ultimately sole heiress of her father. Lady Katherine was first cousin to Queen Katherine and niece to the Duke of Norfolk. During the reign of Queen Elizabeth two of the sons of Sir Andrew Boardman held command under the Earl of Leicester in the expedition to Ireland against the Desmond, and one of them having a grant of forfeited lands in that country, settled there and was the progenitor of the family of that name in Ireland. The English branch of the family now reside in Suffolk.

Arms: Argent, a chevron vert bordered, gules ducally gorged and chained or. The arms of Boardman are quartered with those of Howard in right of the wife of Sir Andrew. By this marriage they are descended from Edward the Confessor, Hugh Capet King of France and Rudolph the first Emperor of Germany.

The American history begins in 1635.
